Yankee Youth's Love.

Once upon a time a big, strapping, awk-ward youth, fresh from Vermont, entered the Drummer Academy, at Byefield, Mass., for a little share of erudition which is doled out at this Temple of Minerva at economicle prices, At that time-we know not how it is at present-the boys and girls were kept in one department, on the middle nisle separating them.

One day this vermont stripling, who had just been helping one of the girls through a hard sum-he was cute in cyphering-thought it not more than fair that he should take toll for his valuable services; accordingly he threw his stalwart arm around the rosy damsel and gave her a sly but rousing smack, which srartled the whole assembly. 'Jedediah Tower, come up herel' roared out the preceptor.

The delinquent appeared, his face glowing with blushes like a red hot warming pan, and looking as stilly as a ninny.

'Hele out your hand sir!' said the pedagogue; I'll teuch you not to act thus in this

THE PURE SPIRIT. - The springs of everlasting life are within. There are clear streams gushing up from the depths of the soul, and flowing out to enliven the sphere of outward existance. But like the waters f Siloah, they "go softly." You must listen beatch the silvery tones of the little rill as it glides along. You may not witness its silent march; but its course will be seen in the fresh verdure and the opening flowers --its presence will be known by forms of life and beauty that gather around it—It is thus with the pure spirit. You may not hear its "still small voice," or heed its si

Is Stewart fond of Office? A Benton Democrat is after Col. Stew-

MR. EDITOR: Some time ago I promised to continue the history of this man Stewart, and the party supporting him for Governor. I left off at the point where he had opposed the nominees of the Democratic party of Buchanan county—and succeeded to office by that means; soon after that, he received Eastern Markets an appointment from a volunteer company raised to go to Mexico-he became disabled from sickness and was prevented from going at all, but held on to his commission contrary to the wish of all his friends, receiving pay and rendering no service, refusing to resign that another might be appointed in his stead who was able to per-form duty. Acting then upon principles characteris-tic of the party now, for office for the party now, for office for the pay of office, wheth-er services are rendered or not—which is more fully illustrated in his present conduct, islature to pay himself five dollars per day, Constitution, and also holds the office of President of the Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad, with a salary of three thousand dollars per annum, given him by the Abolitionists of Boston, who now have full possession of said road, and the Board of Directors of which hold their regular meetings in the city of Boston, all of which was maaged and caused by the conduct of Col. Stewart, to divert the trade of all that beautiful fertile portion of our north-western Missouri, direct through Chicago, Boston and New York in place of our own com-mercial metropolis, St. Lonis. Yes, with already two offices of high salary, he is now asking the people of Missouri to give him another office, that of Governor, without resigning either one of the others. I ask, is that Democratic? If so, deliver me from all such Democracy. These are only a few of the objections that might be urged against Col. Stewart. NATIONAL DEMOCRAT. A MODEL HUSBAND .-- A Paris correspondent of the Boston Post tells a tale of a ambling, dissipated, debaunched husband, whose wife was beloved by a rich baron, and loved him in return, but discouraged his attention. The husband knowing that he had reduced her to misery, resolved to remove the only obstacle to her happiness by destroying himself, and leaped from a precipice in the Pyrennees. Few husbands, says the admiring correspondent, would have been capable of so generous a proceeding, and it is said the ladies generally speak of his noble self-devotion in terms of the highest admiration, and quote it on all occasions the warmest enthusiasm, in hopes that the example may prove contagious, and become a general fashion.
